QCF - creating real impact where it matters most.

Who is QCF?

ABOUT QUEENSLAND COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

Queensland Community Foundation is a public fund that provides the Queensland community a secure investment vehicle to assist the longer-term funding of Queensland charities.

QCF was established to bring together community, business and government to further philanthropic giving. Every dollar given is invested, allowing QCF to provide a long-lasting income stream to charities enabling change to disadvantaged people. Importantly, money given to QCF is protected under the Trust Deed. This means when you choose QCF as your philanthropic vehicle you can have peace of mind your gift is one that will last for a long time and one that will keep on giving.

We work with donors to achieve a constructive, long-lasting impact for the charities or charitable causes they wish to support. All donated funds are invested in perpetuity to provide long-term benefits and donors can grant income to their nominated cause. As an umbrella trust, we take care of all compliance, due diligence and administration measures.

Our regional committees assist with supporting charitable causes throughout Queensland. Donations to our four regions, Gold Coast, Sunshine Coast, North Queensland and Toowoomba – allow people and organisations to support charities and community causes that directly benefit these regions.

We support causes such as arts and culture, children and youth, community and disability services, education, indigenous, health and medical research, religion, environment, and animal welfare.

Part of something bigger, our supporters make a difference

A word from our founder and patron

THE HONOURABLE MIKE AHERN AO

Our Community Foundation continues to go from strength to strength. This is due to the united efforts of many passionate people who can see what QCF can do for our State and it's people in the years ahead.

Human progress comes from people who are leaders in their own way, who inspire others to achieve. We are well led by our Chairperson Margaret McMurdo who has the capacity, commitment and passion to see us grow our philanthropic program strongly into the challenging days ahead. We are very lucky to have her in this role. She is very good at whatever she does.

It seems to me that in our community today, there is too much conflict, confrontation, competition and criticism. Philanthropy in its practical way, helps to offset some of that. Philanthropists respect others. They encourage cooperation and compassion for people disadvantaged in our community. It can be some of the "glue" that holds us together. We support medical research, for instance, which helps human beings worldwide. We support the Arts which encourages innovation and gives colour to our community. Money alone is not enough. Our story is a good one.

We look forward to the future with great enthusiasm.

Human progress comes from people who are leaders in their own way, who inspire others to achieve.

A word from our chair

THE HONOURABLE MARGARET MCMURDO AC

CHAIR, BOARD OF GOVERNORS QUEENSLAND COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

It was an honour to become Chair of the Board of Governors of Queensland Community Foundation in the second half of 2017. I so enjoy working with the Public Trustee and QCF's Board members and staff to foster the constructive, long-term support of charities and philanthropy in Queensland.

This year the Fund celebrated its 21st Anniversary. Our coming of age story is remarkable. QCF was born from modest seed funding and the bold vision of creating a perpetual charitable trust with an ever-growing, permanent income stream for Queensland charities. It enters its 22nd year with capital trust funds approaching $90 million, generating substantial annual income for Queensland charities.

A special feature of QCF is that our generous founding sponsors, Queensland Investment Corporation and the Public Trustee, cover all administrative and marketing costs. This means that donors have the rare comfort of knowing that every cent of every tax-deductible dollar donated goes straight into the charitable fund.

A highlight of our year was QCF's Philanthropy Week during which we showcased and celebrated Queensland philanthropy in all its rich and diverse forms . Our various Philanthropist of the Year Awards, presented at a spectacular lunch in Brisbane's iconic City Hall, honoured Queensland individuals and organisations who have made outstanding contributions within the community. I thank this year's judges and sponsors and warmly welcome Northern Trust as a supporting partner of Philanthropy Week and our Philanthropy in Focus Photo Challenge which fostered a burst of positive and poignant creativity.

Other 2018 Philanthropy Week celebrations included an inaugural event with our Sunshine Coast Regional Sub-committee which raised awareness about QCF, particularly its Sunshine Coast Sub-Fund and the concept of 'give where you live' philanthropy. Our regional sub-funds (currently Gold Coast, Sunshine Coast, Toowoomba and North Queensland) foster a local philanthropic spirit and ensure that QCF is in touch with the needs of all Queenslanders right across this decentralised State. This year our regional sub-funds supported their communities by distributing $107,000 to achieve local positive social change.

Philanthropy week also saw the launch of the North Queensland Regional Sub-committee, with Lieutenant General (Rtd) John Caligari AO, DSC as Chair. We look forward to this sub-committee overseeing the establishment of a discrete sub-fund to foster a North Queensland 'give where you live' philanthropy.

By facilitating positive change for Queenslanders in need now, QCF currently helps maintain social cohesion throughout this vast State. The Fund's special model, the envy of other States, ensures it will continue to do so for generations to come. QCF is a visionary piece of not-for-profit infrastructure, an everlasting safety net, and a future fund for Queenslanders in need. Those who establish their own sub-funds under the QCF umbrella, those who leave us a bequest, and those who entrust us with tax-deductible donations can all rest assured that every cent of their gift will be prudently shepherded to keep on giving to the Queensland community, forever.

A word from our trustee

PETER CARNE

PUBLIC TRUSTEE OF QUEENSLAND AS TRUSTEE FOR QUEENSLAND COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

Queensland Community Foundation (QCF) reached another milestone this year, celebrating 21 years as a leading community foundation in Queensland and Australia. This year QCF made distributions to deserving charitable organisations totalling over $2.5 million.

QCF welcomed The Honourable Margaret McMurdo AC as the Chair of QCF Board of Governors, who has brought a wealth of knowledge and valuable experience to the role. It has been a pleasure working alongside Ms McMurdo this year to continue to deliver QCF's mission of providing an enduring fund to support those working to improve the quality of life of Queenslanders.

This year saw a number of new appointments to the Board, and continued expansion with the establishment of the North Queensland Regional Advisory Committee and the North Queensland Community Fund.

Once again, The Public Trustee was proud to be involved in QCF's Philanthropy Week which honours leading end emerging Queensland Philanthropists through sponsorship of the QCF Community Philanthropist of the Year Award. In 2018, this honour went to Mr Tim Fairfax AC who nominated The Foundation for Rural and Regional Renewal to receive the donation sponsored by The Public Trustee.

This year QCF made distributions to deserving charitable organisations totalling over $2.5 million.

QCF has continued to benefit from the generous contributions from donors and testators and the hard work and endeavours of the Public Trustee will writers. This year, gifts from wills written by the Public Trustee totalled more than $3.12 million.

On a final note, I would like to acknowledge that QCF's success would not be possible without the ongoing support of our generous donors, sponsors, Board and committee members and staff whose persistent commitment will continue to lead QCF into the future.

What drives us?

Queensland Community Foundation is a passionate and powerful champion of philanthropy in Queensland. We are driven by a desire to inspire giving. We want to make philanthropy accessible to all Queenslanders by growing our charitable trusts that are safe, reliable and enduring.

We believe philanthropy has the power to bring about real and lasting change. When we unite to make that change through giving, we build prosperity and nurture our communities.

Queensland Community Foundation exists to enable all Queenslanders help their fellow Queenslanders. As Queensland's only state wide community foundation seeking to meet the social needs of Queensland now and into the future, QCF distributes funds that help make a real difference to thousands of Queenslanders who need it most.

We motivate and inspire Queenslanders to donate, and be part of something bigger. QCF is a pillar of philanthropy in Queensland and we believe giving is best celebrated and shared.

GIVE TO THE COMMUNITY – GENERAL FUND

FARESHARE

FareShare, Australia's largest charity kitchen, opened its new Brisbane operations in partnership with FoodBank Queensland.

QCF's grant of $30,000 from the General Fund helped recruit a volunteer co-ordinator to implement their volunteer program. Up to 300 regular volunteers are required to ensure the kitchen is fully staffed and able to produce approximately 5 million meals each year. On any given day volunteers will dice 1 tonne of meat, chop 3 tonnes of vegetables, pick 100kg of herbs, mash 300kg of potatoes, cook 500kg of pasta, open up to 600 cans, crack 2,000 eggs, puree 300 litres of soup and pack 6,000 meals.

FareShare turns surplus food donated by FoodBank, into free, nutritious meals for disadvantaged men, women and children and helps alleviate hunger.

Volunteers are critical to the operation of FareShare and are at the heart of its success.

The 2018 grant round focused on mid-tier organisations supporting local communities, including but not limited to, environment and the arts.

EMPIRE THEATRES – MANY VOICES – ONE STORY

The Empire Theatres Foundation supports arts based activities and opportunities to further the cultural experiences and professional development of young people in the Toowoomba region.

Through a series of workshops and creative development sessions at Harristown State High School, refugees, migrants and students who require English as an additional language/dialect, will work with writer and director Ari Palani, to create a story about becoming Australian, and what connects us as humans in this time and place.

The regional Queensland experience provides an environment that cultivates stories of resilience, compassion, survival and banding together as a community. Empire Theatres are seeking to utilise the young voice of our newest community members, and this program will increase participant capacity for creative expression in English as well as honouring and providing representation for the languages and countries represented.

CREATING A LASTING LEGACY

THE PATRICK AND DOROTHY WOOLCOCK MEDICAL RESEARCH FUND

Dr Paddy Woolcock was a highly respected thoracic surgeon in Queensland, who outside of his work, had only been to hospital twice in his life – one Christmas Eve he was dangerously ill and was taken to Prince Charles Hospital where he underwent a mitral valve replacement. Some years later he revisited the hospital after a severe car accident ending up in intensive care.

When Dr Woolcock recovered, he and his wife Dorothy felt permanently indebted for the care and treatment that saved his life, and decided to establish a sub-fund under the QCF umbrella in support of medical research.

Each year The Prince Charles Hospital Foundation receives a benefit from the sub-fund.

Over four years, $4 million worth of treatment was provided for 8,000 patients and over 54,000 kilometres travelled.

The QCoal Foundation, established in 2011, provides up to $1 million a year to other initiatives to foster resilience in regional and remote communities. Programs deliver sustainable outcomes in key areas of health, education, financial literacy, regional work experience and scholarships.

QCF SME PHILANTHROPIST OF THE YEAR 2018

THYNNE + MACARTNEY

Nominated by Gallipoli Medical Research Foundation

Thynne + Macartney has been contributing to the community since the firm's establishment in 1893. Although they are involved with a broad range of community activity, their main contribution is in veteran's support, through the Gallipoli Medical Research Foundation (GMRF).

In 2016, Thynne + Macartney committed to donating $100,000 to GMRF over four years. This contribution is currently funding innovative medical research into the development of treatments for serious illnesses, such as liver cancer.

Thynne + Macartney also supports Ride West, a charity bike ride that helps raise money and creates more awareness about men's mental health issues, specifically in regional Australia.

The establishment of the Tim Fairfax Family Foundation (TFFF) has impacted communities across Queensland and the Northern Territory, distributing over $31million in the areas of arts, community and education.

TFFF builds the capacity of rural, regional and remote communities to improve their vibrancy, connectedness, resilience, and sustainability.

Tim Fairfax has also been a supporter and served on the governing bodies of the RNA, the National Gallery of Australia, the Foundation for Rural and Regional Renewal, the National Portrait Gallery, the Salvation Army and the University of Sunshine Coast Foundation. He is Chancellor of QUT, and established the Tim Fairfax Learning Potential Fund Scholarships, providing more than 185 scholarships for students from rural, remote and regional areas.

QCF EMERGING PHILANTHROPIST OF THE YEAR 2018

COURTNEY TALBOT

Nominated by State Library of Queensland
Sponsored by QIC

Courtney Talbot is a remarkable young woman whose passion for philanthropy covers the arts, community services and sport.

Courtney joined the Queensland Library Foundation in 2014 to carry on the legacy of her late father. She introduced an innovative crowd funding event, which resulted in new donors gifting more than $20,000 in the past 18 months. She also established the Next Generation sub-committee to engage young people in giving.

A significant State Library of Queensland financial supporter, Courtney is also on fundraising committees for MS Queensland and the Brisbane Festival, and she regularly donates to local charities.

QCF PHOTO CHALLENGE PHILANTHROPY IN FOCUS

JAMIE ROBERTSON'S 'COMPASSION'

Supported by Northern Trust

Philanthropy in Focus, supported by Northern Trust, invited photographers and non-profit organisations to come together to connect, tell their stories and share their work. Using the power of photography to reflect philanthropy, Queenslanders were challenged to capture a moment of kindness, generosity, compassion, thoughtfulness, benevolence or giving.

The winning entry was Jamie Robertson's Compassion (top), which spoke of hope, support, love and loss during an emotional moment shared by three indigenous women who work at Deadly Espresso Cafe, a social enterprise initiative run by SevGen.
